Announcement of Financial Support for Faculty Members associated to Central Sanskrit University for attending World Sanskrit Conference 2025 in Kathmandu, Nepal

Central Sanskrit University (CSU) invites applications to participate in the upcoming World Sanskrit Conference (WSC) scheduled to be held on 26-30 June, 2025 in Kathmandu, the capital city of Nepal. The WSC is a prestigious international platform dedicated to the advancement and promotion of Sanskrit studies and cultural heritage.

The World Sanskrit Conference is organized under the aegis of the International Association of Sanskrit Studies (IASS), which was founded in 1972. The association has been instrumental in fostering scholarly exchange and collaboration among Sanskritists worldwide. The conference serves as a meeting ground for academicians, researchers, practitioners, and enthusiasts of Sanskrit to discuss and present their work in various domains, including literature, philosophy, linguistics, history, arts, and culture.

Significance of the Kathmandu Conference

Kathmandu, known as the "City of Temples," holds a special place in Sanskrit traditions, being a hub of ancient knowledge and culture. Hosting the WSC in Nepal reaffirms the global significance of Sanskrit and its role in fostering cultural and academic ties.

The WSC 2025 conference will feature:

Academic paper presentations, Cultural performances, Workshops and panel discussions, and Exhibitions showcasing Sanskrit manuscripts and art.
